FROM THE CONCIERGE DESK

The Residences Providence and The Procaccianti Group continue to make improvements to the Residences Tower as a courtesy to the Residents. The latest improvements were the addition of mirrors to the 16th –32nd floor common areas, as well as the renovation of P2—the parking level lobby looks fantastic!

Staff Anniversary: Please help us congratulate Kelly Lee on her 5 year anniversary working for The Procaccianti Group.

TRAVEL + LEISURE'S SURVEY RANKS CAPITAL CITY THIRD BEST IN NATION

Outranked only by New Orleans and San Francisco, Providence is No. 3 on Travel + Leisure's America's Best Cities for Foodies survey. Cited for its burgeoning farm-to-table establishments, the Capital City is winning the hearts and stomachs of American travelers with its New England "homey vibe." Nods were given to Providence's Chez Pascal and Nick's on Broadway for serving seafood purchased directly from local fishermen. Providence eclipsed New York City, which came in at No. 4, and neighboring Boston which came in at No. 23.

PROVIDENCE'S OWN LASALLE BAKERY AWARDED NATIONAL BAKERY OF THE YEAR

For almost four decades, LaSalle Bakery has been a staple mom-and-pop shop in Providence, running two successful bakeries in Mount Pleasant and Elmhurst. Owned and operated by Providence natives Cheryl and Michael Manni since 1975, LaSalle Bakery's unwavering commitment to good customer service and sound management practices has grabbed the attention of national publication Modern Baking Magazine, which has awarded them the National Retail Bakery of the Year title.

The full story covers the bakery's longstanding success at operating two retail shops within close proximity to each other, citing both their management and marketing methods.

To show appreciation for loyal customers and employees, LaSalle Bakery is hosting a Celebration Week from October 24-28. More details can be found at www.lasallebakeryoftheyear.com.
